THE following Designs are published in illustration of the various styles of Decoration applied to Window Glass, with a view to assist those who require Ornamental Glass in the selection of the most appropriate style; and the composition, selection, and execution of the Drawings having been entrusted to Artists of great experience in this branch of the Decorative Art, we confidently submit them to the public.

Many of these Designs, however, admit of an almost endless variety of combination, and require to be modified according to circumstances; we shall be happy to furnish special drawings to meet such cases, if required, and shall make no charge for the drawings when followed by an order.

We have not attached any Prices, since they depend in a great measure upon the scale of execution and other circumstances, which are better explained in our List of Prices, to which we beg to refer; but as we manufacture all the varieties of Glass which enter into the composition of Coloured Ornamental Windows, and possess in our establishment every facility for their execution, we are enabled to supply them at such comparatively low prices, as cannot, we think, fail to promote a more general application of this beautiful species of decoration.
